UNCLE SAM AND GREATER AMERICA

The English papers that thought Uncle Sam was getting tired in the Philippines have again concluded that they do not understand American sentiment.

DURING the first quarter of the current year Spanish imports increased 45,000,000 pesetas, while the exports decreased 43,000,000 pesetas. Customs receipts show a heavy decrease.

Two European Nations are experimenting with atomic war. It will be decided by a liquid register 300 degrees below zero.

AMERICAN manufacturers made their highest record in foreign markets last month. Exports for March were 35 per cent. in excess of those for any preceding month and 50 per cent. more than in February, 1899. The increase is apparent in nearly all lines of manufacture.

An American packing firm will ship at once 1,500,000 pounds of dressed beef to the army in the Philippines and the soldiers are eager to get it. They know from experience that the war made on American beef, canned or other, is 999 parts in 1000 mere fraud and falsehood.

ENGLISH papers compliment the American volunteers at Calumpit on their devoted patriotism and gallantry, and with excellent reason. They also score the copperheads who have been trying to "humiliate the nation and the government by persuading the volunteers to a disgraceful and cowardly retreat."

The customs receipts for Cuba for the first quarter of the present calendar year at all ports amount to $3,275,000. At this rate the total receipts for the year will not fall short of $13,000,000, and as the imports are constantly increasing, it is believed that the total will be close to $18,000,000 for the entire year. This will be enough to meet the cost of government, including the army of occupation. It is quite surprising and clearly shows how extravagant must have been the administration of Spain when, in addition to customs, it taxed everything else in sight, and yet did not get enough to pay the army. The stealing direct and indirect must have been on a grand scale.

Bishop Henry M. Turner, colored, said in a sermon at Atlanta that slavery afforded the Negro better protection than he enjoys under present conditions. He again expressed the belief that the race question would never be settled "until the Negro obeyed God's manifest will and returned to Africa."

The Murder Theory Believed.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 3.—The police have a new theory regarding the death of Mrs. Mary Storek. They are convinced she was murdered by a blow on the head, and the body was carried to the ditch and thrown in the night before it was found. Men working with road scrapers for three days near the place, claim they could have seen the body if it had been there. The coroner will have the body exhumed and a post-mortem held.

THE COMMONWEALTH.

THE SHAFT DEDICATED.

Speech of Gov. W. O. Bradley at the Unveiling of the Kentucky Monument in Chickamauga Park.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 3.—At the unveiling of the Kentucky monument in Chickamauga Wednesday Gov. Bradley said in part:

Many monuments have been erected upon battlefields of other republics, but it has been reserved for Kentucky to be the first of all the states, with tender and motherly devotion, to erect a blended monument to all her sons—a monument that carries with it and upon it complete reconciliation of all contending passions. This shaft is dedicated, not alone to those who died on this and surrounding fields, but to the gallant survivors who, when the frowning clouds of war were dispelled by the bright sunshines of peace, returned to their homes to repair broken fortunes, and are today numbered among the best and most distinguished sons of the commonwealth.

Kentucky has evinced no partiality in this evidence of loving remembrance. It carries with it no heart-burning, no jealousy, no invidious distinction. It is not an emblem of honor to the victor and reproach to the vanquished—but an equal tribute to the worth of all. In future, the descendants of chivalrous confederates may proudly gaze upon it, realizing that the state has honored their ancestors, and that, although their cause was lost, their heroism is revered and their memories perpetuated. And the sons of the brave men who fought on the other side may look upon it with equal pride, feeling that it fitly commemorates the gallant deeds of their illustrious ancestors, who preserved the nation from destruction. May it endure forever, standing guard over victor and vanquished, with the statue that surmounts it, in one hand holding the torch of liberty shedding abroad its benign rays; in the other grasping the sword, emblematical of the strength of one people, ready and anxious at all times to uphold the integrity of one country, and to drive, scoured and bled from its shores any insolent foe that shall ever dare invade them.

And now, after the mists of prejudice have been torn from our eyes, and we are enabled to see the bright stars of truth and reason which shine beyond all plain, let us divine the sentiments which inspired the actors in that bloody drama. That the union should have been preserved and slavery abolished, all are ready to concede. That the victors won in honorable fight no one will dispute. But while this is conceded, it is equally true that those who were unfortunately defeated, were inspired by sincere devotion to principles conscientiously believed to be just; that they fought with valor, equaled alone by those who opposed them, but were surprised, and their heroic bravery and suffering entitle them to the admiration of all mankind.

There could be no more convincing evidence of the righteous termination of that great struggle than the present grandeur and power of the republic—to lay the richest nation on earth, the workshop and granary of the globe. No sane man would revive the institution of slavery, or the heroic blood of our Negro troops has obliterated every lingering regret of the master and proclaimed in unmistakable language that the liberty of 1861 is better than the slavery of 1861.

The monument dedicated today may, in the rush of years, crumble and fall into dust, but the summit of Lookout Mountain, and the very Ridges, like gathering mists, shall remain forever the memories of these historic fields, and in every heart shall be a monument of love, and strength and patriotism, which will perpetuate through all coming time, the glories of that great conflict.

Looking into the future, may not the fond hope be indulged that in the end our country may, in all things, be deliberate, just and wise; that our flag may wave in triumph, feared by tyrants, in every land and on every sea; that beneath its folds may gather the oppressed of every clime, and the slave struggling beneath the rod of oppression, feel his chains grow lighter, his heart leap with joy and hail its colors as a deliverance; that nations which have been bitten by the serpent of capacity and conquest shall look upon its folds and be healed, as those who, with faith, looked upon the brazen serpent that was lifted up in the wilderness. God grant that ours shall be the victory of enlightenment and liberty, the triumph of right over might, of justice over injustice, of humanity over cruelty and oppression, until empires shall have passed away and the nations of earth become one.

Church Fairs Declared Illegal.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 3.—In instructing the new May grand jury Tuesday morning, Judge Barker, of the criminal division, after reading the law pertaining to lotteries, said it was just as illegal for church and charitable organizations to conduct lotteries, drawings and fairs as it was to openly operate houses in which games of chance were played.

A Meningitis Victim.

THE BUYERS' GUIDE.

THEY HAVE ARRIVED.

The 45 dozen Rockers that I told you of are here. This is an elegantly finished handsomely carved solid oak cane-seat Rocking Chair with handsome wide arms, a luxuriously easy chair, only $1.19 each. There are 540 of them, but they won't last long at this price, so come quick. Other stores sell them at $2.

MALTA DOUBLE SHOVEL PLOWS, $1.95.

Just received, two carloads of the famous Florence Farm Wagons. They run like a greyhound. The Running Gears of a two-horse Wagon only $37, or complete with bed, anti-spreaders, lazy-back spring seat and double gear brake, only $47.25.

The latest Improved Tobacco Setter only $42.90. Surely you won't pay $55 to "High Prices" for one! Come to the fountain head always and post yourself. We will act as your guide. You can always learn the true worth of any article by calling on us.

We have a patent 2-horse Corn Planter that winds up its cable while planting the last row. It is positively accurate—drops one grain at a time regardless of size. You ought to see it. It is a curiosity. Riding and Walking Cultivators of all kinds, the biggest assortment in the Ohio Valley, as low as $12.50. You do yourself an injustice if you don't call and examine them. 5-hoe center lever Cultivators $2.00. Solid oak Bedroom Suit $8.55.

The Price Fighter's blows are death to High Prices. Ask the people—the people! Ask other furniture and implement dealers and they will tell you that there is nothing in the business since the Price Fighter opened two stores.

THE PEOPLE'S FRIEND.

Talk About Your PICNICS!

THIS YEAR'S PICNIC WILL BE THE REAL THING.

The Price Fighter's Fourth Annual Picnic will excel all previous records. Maysville won't hold them all, so we are going to divide it—have one Picnic in Maysville and one in Brooksville. Listen: At the great Deering Harvester Works, Chicago, Ill., there is now being built 14 carloads of Deering Binders, Mowers and Hay Rakes for John I. Winter, Maysville, Ky. Think of it, 14 carloads of machines to be delivered in Maysville in one day! My, but won't it be a sure enough Picnic! Will you be in the Deering procession? The Deering Band Wagon is almost full, but there is room for one more. Come, join the procession; mix with your neighbors; see and talk to old friends that you have not seen for 20 years; they will all be here, a happy, contented and prosperous crowd, because harvest never worries them—they use Deering Machines and have the perfect assurance that all will be well. Come, be my guest for one day; I promise you a day of amusement. John I. Winter pays the bills. There will be music. There will be a banquet. There will be all kinds of fun. Your teams will be taken care of. The date for this huge Picnic will be named soon; watch for it. We are only waiting for the Deering Company to say when they can ship these 14 cars, the largest shipment of machines ever made to one single agency. Get a front seat in the big Deering Parade. You might as well be out of the world as out of style. Thanking you again for your patronage, and assuring you that I will extend to you the same care and attention as I have for the past 15 years, I am your friend,
